

Dharma Ocean

Entering the Path: An Introduction to Buddhist Teachings

Start with the Hinayana and learn to reference your direct experience as the best teacher

Table of Contents: Talks & MP3 Tracks

Talk 1: Introduction to Meditation

1. Life of the Buddha

Talk 2: Unpacking Enlightenment

(Dathün 2006–07)

2. Questioning the Concept of Enlightenment
3. The Concept of Enlightenment within Tibetan Tradition
4. Enlightenment is Not Disconnecting
5. Realization is Transparency and Responsiveness to Life
6. Letting Go of the Term Enlightenment
7. Separating the Path of Dharma From Cultural Overlays
8. Visualization – Homage to Practicing Yogins and Yoginis

Talk 3: The Noble Truths

(Dathün 2003–04)

9. View, Meditation, and Action
10. Our Buddha Nature in Each Moment
11. Anxiety – A Sign of Waking Up
12. Noble Truths of Suffering and Ignorance
13. Path
14. Fulfill All that Mind Desires
15. Applying the 3–Fold Breathing

Talk 4: Finding Inspiration in Sadness

(Dathün 2005–06)

16. Underlying Sadness
17. Sadness Until Death
18. First Noble Truth and Realization
19. Heart of the World Right Here
20. Meditation is the Path
21. Committing Ourselves to Practice
22. Suggested Daily Practice
23. Long Practice Intensives
24. Practice Changes the World
25. Staying In Touch
26. Path – Hinayana
27. Path – Mahayana and Vajrayana
28. Ideas for Continued Practice
29. Ideas for Continued Study

Talk 5: Precepts

(Dathün 2002–03)

30. Space and Ego
31. Precepts and Daily Life
32. Precepts in This Context
33. Precepts and Impulses
34. Precepts Will Be Broken
35. Confession and Setting Aside a Precept
36. Precepts Ceremony
37. Sanskrit Chants Explained
38. Reciting the Precepts

Talk 6: The Five Precepts

(Dathün 2005–06)

39. Purpose of the Precepts
40. Comparison with Retreat
41. Ground of Precepts
42. Path of Precepts
43. Fruition of Precepts
44. Precepts – Not Taking Life
45. Precept – Not Stealing
46. The Remaining Three Precepts
47. Taking and Breaking Precepts
48. Translation of Precepts
49. Purpose is Not to Keep the Precepts

Talk 7: Discovery in Fear

(Dathün 2005–06)

50. Gradual and Quick Paths
51. Bravery
52. Discovering Ourselves
53. Lineage and the Path
54. Practice is the Flame

Key

GM = Guided Meditation