

OLIVE ALL AT ONCE

Written by Mariam Gates
Illustrated by Alison Hawkins

Meet Olive.

She likes swinging on the monkey bars, painting, and stripy socks.

Not tights.

She likes school and parties and hanging out with her family.

I do!

Olive also has a lot of feelings . . .

On Olive's first day of school, she was excited.

On Olive's first day of school, she was scared.

No, I was excited and scared.

I was excited because I wanted to see my classroom and meet my teacher.

But I was scared because at Circle Time,
I didn't know where to sit.

Then I was excited again when I met Malcolm.

We were both wearing stripy socks!

And even more excited when he invited me to his birthday party.

Okay, on Olive's first day of school, she felt excited and scared.

Sometimes I have different feelings about going to school on a Monday.

My mom says it can be hard to "get back into the swing of things." She says grownups sometimes feel that way too.